

Suzanne Brown Peters

Stamford, CT

Suzanne Brown Peters is Chair of the Strategic Partnerships Committee of DREF. She is the principal and CEO of Peters Associates, LLC Consulting dedicated to advancing women and girls through diversity strategies, education, and leadership development. Suzanne is a former foundation executive and led the Fund for Women and Girls as Vice President of Fairfield County's Community Foundation in Connecticut and served as Advisory Board Co-Chair of the Family Economic Security Program, a working family's initiative with the Norwalk Community College Foundation. Ms. Brown Peters previously worked for INROADS Inc. as Vice President of Financial Services. Her corporate career includes positions at Citibank/Citigroup in global marketing, trade finance, cash management and foreign exchange.

Suzanne is a Golden Life Member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. and a member of the Links, Inc. She serves on the boards of the Women's Funding Network and The Greater Fairfield County Foundation and holds memberships in the National Diversity Council, the Association of Fundraising Professionals, and the AAUW. Suzanne is a member of the First United Methodist Church in Stamford, where she serves on the Church Council. Ms. Brown Peters earned an MBA from the University of Chicago and a B.S. degree from Boston University. She completed the Diversity Professionals Program at Cornell University. Suzanne resides in Stamford, Connecticut with her family.