

Tchicaya Ellis Robertson, Ph.D.

Chicago, IL

Tchicaya Ellis Robertson, Ph.D. is the DREF Board liaison to the Sister Scholars Advisory Council, making her responsible for leading the research endeavors of The Center for Research on African American Women. Dr. Robertson is a Senior Principal with Accenture and serves as Global Survey Lead for the Products Industry. She conducts research in a broad range of areas, and her primary interests are in employee and customer experience and research that informs the workforce of the future. She is a member of the Insights Association, a corporate research organization, and serves as the Chicago Lead for the Women in Research (WIRe) organization.

Dr. Robertson earned a doctorate in Applied Psychology from Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, IL, is an author of two books, and an active member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. A former member of Joliet Area-South Suburban Alumnae Chapter, she is a charter member of the recently established Chicago Metropolitan Alumnae (June 2020). She currently serves as Program Planning and Development Coordinator for the Midwest Region.