

".....teachers have to connect with their students and motivate them before learning and achievement truly occurs...students need all of us to be engaged..."

The York Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.
and

The Delta Research and Educational Foundation and Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

Invite You to Join with Other Community Change Agents for Education

To Attend a

“Call to Action”

TOWN HALL MEETING

Thursday October 15, 2015 at William Penn High School

4:30PM (Coffee and Conversation) - 5PM Meeting
Refreshments will be served

Educators, community organizations, parents, students, businesses, religious organizations, politicians & stakeholders:

Be a part of this important community call to action about improving graduation rates for our city’s at-risk youth. Learn What You Can Do!

Moderator

Dr. Dwayne Wright, PhD - Messiah College, Associate Professor

We’ll Talk, Listen, Exchange Ideas & Take Action

Reserve your Seat TODAY: <http://tinyurl.com/pat46t2>

Or host a registration table for your childrens programs:
yacdstownhall@gmail.com

CREATING POSSIBILITIES ...
IMPROVING LIVES

The Delta Teacher Efficacy Campaign (DTEC) is a collaboration between The Delta Research and Educational Foundation (DREF) and the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. (DST) funded by a matching grant from the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation. The three-year campaign is designed to enhance teacher effectiveness and promote learning among at-risk, urban students with the goal of increasing graduation rates. For more information contact:

Dr. Johni Cruse Craig, Project Director ▲ Delta Research and Educational Foundation ▲ 1703 New Hampshire Ave., NW ▲ Washington, DC 20009
DTEC@deltafoundation.net ▲ www.deltafoundation.net ▲ (202) 347-1337